

Guess who is coming to dinner 2023

Saturday 11th March 2023

If you are in the mood for a tasty event full of mystery encounters with BLAS friends (to be), then this is your night! While enjoying an appetizing dinner in a homey atmosphere, you will get to know your dinner companions.

Overall, the evening consists of 3 parts:

- Aperitif (drink + snack) and Starter dish prepared by one guest couple
- Main course with accompanying wine prepared by host
- Dessert with matching wine or similar, prepared by another guest couple

There are 2 types of participants:

- Steady hosts
Staying at home for the whole evening, hosts welcome their mystery guests. The hosts provide the main course (and accompanying wine for this course). They receive the aperitif, starter, and dessert with matching drinks from their guests.
- Surprise guests
They bring along an aperitif (drink + snack) and starter dish OR a dessert with accompanying wine to their designated host.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- As this event requires some planning, please do respect the subscription deadline of Saturday 4th March. We trust you understand that late subscriptions will not be accepted for organisational reasons.
- Please mention any dietary restrictions on the registration form.
- Count on 6 to 7 adults per meal.
- Single subscriptions are most welcome and will be paired up for the occasion if necessary.
- By Wednesday 8 March at the latest you will receive an email with information on:
 - Your location
 - What course to prepare/bring and for how many people
- To keep it a mysterious, we will not disclose any names. In the same spirit, stay-at-home hosts do not know beforehand whom to expect.
- This event is adults-only
- If you plan on having a drink (or two), we strongly recommend you travel by taxi.
